One day as Billy and Ella
were playing with blocks,
their bell rang.

Ding-dong!

“That is Jade,” called Mom. “You may get the door.”

Most days Jade looked happy, but on this day she looked sad.

"Are you OK, Jade?" Billy asked.

Jade shook her head. "No," she said. "I lost my pretty ring!"

"Oh no!" said Ella. She gave Jade a hug. "That is sad. I am sorry your ring is lost."

“Do you think you can help?” Jade asked Billy and Ella. “You are so good at finding clues!”

“Billy, do you think we can?”
asked Ella.

Billy smiled. "I think we can!" he said. "It is like a mystery!"

Jade smiled too. She did not look sad now!

“Thank you!” Jade said. “You are such good friends!”

Billy went to get a notebook and a pen. He planned to jot down the clues they found.

“What does your ring look like, Jade?” Billy asked.

“It is very pretty. It is silver, and it has a little blue stone on it.”
