FALSE REFLECTION

George Washington loved dogs and used them for hunting. He once wrote that he wanted to create a new breed: "a superior dog, one that had speed, sense, and brains." He was gifted seven French hounds, and he bred them with black-and-tan coonhounds to create the American foxhound. Something is wrong with the reflection in the pond! How many differences can you spot in the reflection? (There are 13.) Circle all the differences you can find. Then color the page.

DECODE THE MESSAGE

Directions:

First, cut out the large gray box. Second, cut out the small boxes along the red dashed lines to create a decoder. Lay the decoder over the message in the big red box to answer this question: WHAT ARE OUR INALIENABLE (GOD-GIVEN) RIGHTS?

All my life I have wanted to go see historic monuments with my family, like the Statue of Liberty and the Capitol Building. Learning about our country is a good pursuit, one worthy of our time. Living in such a beautiful, free country brings me happiness.

Paul Revere bravely rode his horse one night to Lexington, Massachusetts, to warn colonists that British troops were stationed in Boston.

Directions:

Help Paul Revere find his way to Lexington. Starting on the number 4, move forward the number of spaces shown on each circle. But watch out! Don't let him run into any British soldiers!
